

ANNEX 3

ESSAY CONTEST

(Optional)

Requirements:

- 1. To belong to a delegation that participates in the days of CAENU XIII.*
- 2. The essay presented must have a minimum of 600 words and a maximum of 1000 words*
- 3. The theme of the essay will be as follows:*

One of the main objectives of the United Nations is to achieve international cooperation for the solution of economic, social, cultural and humanitarian global problems. It has been 72 years since multiple nations signed an agreement to achieve peace and development for humanity. However, since that date, there have been multiple humanitarian crisis, financial crisis, wars, plagues, epidemics and human disasters that occurred or arose due to the lack of cooperation between nations and their differences.

“How can the international community prioritize the integration of all nations into a more efficient cooperation, with a view of achieving a stable and balanced future?”

- 4. The essay must be submitted to the General Secretariat on the first day of the model for evaluation.*
- 5. The evaluation of each of the trials will be based on a rubric and with the support of the board of the model.*
- 6. The winning essay of the model will be awarded and will be read at the closing ceremony of CAENU XIII.*
- 7. We remind you that the sources consulted should be clearly quoted in the essay. Failure to comply with this provision will lead to the immediate elimination of the test of such competition, among other measures.
